

TRAVEL WITHOUT THE WEIGHT

Pack Everything. Carry Nothing.

What if you never had to check bags again?

- Worried about tight connections or a complicated itinerary?
- Dreading the wait at baggage claim?
- Not looking forward to lugging heavy bags through airports?
- Pick up too many good things along the way?

There's a better way to travel.

Ship&Play.

Ship&Play is a concierge luggage service that removes the heaviest part of travel. Everything you've packed is collected from your home and delivered directly to your hotel, cruise ship, or destination — so you travel hands-free from the moment you leave. And when the journey winds down, after the final sunset and farewell toast, your luggage simply meets you back home. No baggage claim. No dragging suitcases through terminals. No navigating ports with multiple bags in tow. It's a small change that transforms how travel feels.

MOVE FREELY

Glide through airports unencumbered — no claim lines, no port-side stress, no connection anxiety.

HOW IT WORKS

Pack as you would for any trip. We'll pick up your bags — or you can drop them off nearby. They'll be waiting when you arrive at your destination.

WORKS NEARLY ANYWHERE

If you can get there, we can get your bags there first.
